

The Commission's primary activities include:

- 1) review of applications for certificate of appropriateness for proposed changes to the exterior of historic district properties
- 2) review of nominations to designate a landmark or historic district, for recommendation and referral to the Common Council for approval
- 3) Public education relating to historic preservation in our community.